A 3D architectural rendering of a kitchen island. The island features a light-colored, textured wall and a dark wood countertop. A decorative wrought-iron railing with a repeating scroll pattern is mounted on top of the island. In the background, a kitchen bar area is visible, including a wooden cabinet, a sink, a faucet, and a refrigerator. The walls are decorated with framed artwork and a patterned wallpaper. The floor is covered in a terracotta tile pattern.

A 3D architectural rendering of a bathroom. On the left, a white vanity with a dark wood cabinet holds a white oval sink and a dark bronze faucet. In the background, a shower area is visible with light-colored wood-look wall panels. On the right, a white bathtub is set into a dark wood vanity. The floor is covered in light-colored tiles with a repeating geometric pattern. In the foreground, a dark metal cart holds a stack of folded white towels. A large white watermark is overlaid across the center of the image.
